Cojorado Springs, Aug. 14.-As the Peterson who fives at 1423 Ogden street, Denver, on a street car in Mainton early tonight, William Johnson, a negro porter of Colorado Springs was nearly lynched. Nearly 500 excited tourists and residents of Maniton surrounded the negro and it was with difficulty that the police finally removed him to a cell in the county fail in this city. The trouble occurred at the end of the car line. Johnson boarded the tur and attempted to hold a double Scat. Mrs. Peterson entered after the negro and sat down unintentionally in the seat beside him. A moment later Johnson bodily pushed the white woman off the weat, so that she fell to the floor of the car. Immediately the white passengers were in an uptour and several advised lynching in the melee which followed, the officers had difficulty spiriting Johnson away. No further trouble is anticipated.
